About cookies

What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files sent by a website’s server to a web browser, processor memory or hard drive and stored there. They can be used for a range of different purposes, such as customising a website for a particular user, helping a user navigate a website, improving that user’s website experience, and storing that user’s preferences and login information.

Types of cookies

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

- Necessary cookies
- Statistics cookies
- Marketing cookies

Necessary and non-necessary cookies

Cookies can be classified as either 'necessary' or 'non-necessary'.

Necessary cookies: these are cookies that are either:

- used solely to carry out or facilitate the transmission of communications over a network; or
- strictly necessary to provide an online service (e.g. our website or a service on our website) which you have requested.

Non-necessary cookies: these are any cookies that do not fall within the definition of necessary cookies, such as cookies used to analyse your behaviour on a website ('statistic' cookies) or cookies used to display advertisements to you ('marketing' cookies).

Session and persistent cookies

Cookies can be classified as either 'session' or 'persistent', depending on how long they last after they are placed on your browser.

Session cookies: session cookies last for as long as you keep your browser open. They expire when you close your browser.

Persistent cookies: persistent cookies expire at a fixed point in time or if you manually delete them from your browser, whichever occurs first.

First and third party cookies

Cookies can be classified as 'first party' or 'third party'.

First party cookies: these are cookies placed on your device by our website domain.

Third party cookies: these are cookies placed on your device by third party website domains.

If you require further information about cookies in general, please visit www.allaboutcookies.org

List of cookies used

You can find a full list of cookies installed on our site here: <https://www.theoldpipingbag.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/cookie-list.pdf>

This list is also broken down into Necessary Cookies, Statistical cookies and Marketing cookies. You can opt out of any of these types of cookies by adjusting the settings in your browser. You can opt out of analytical cookies using the cookie pop-up banner that appears on the website.

Necessary cookies

These are cookies which are strictly necessary for our website to be able to operate or to provide you with a service on our website which you have requested. We use the following necessary cookies on our website:

- first party session cookies to remember your input when you fill in an online form over several pages on our website.
- first party session cookies for remembering the items you have placed in your shopping cart.
- first party session cookies to identify and authenticate you when you log into our website so you do not need to repeatedly enter your login information.
- first party security cookies used for detecting repeated failed login attempts.
- first party security cookies used to prevent abuse of the login system on our website.

first party and third party session multimedia player cookies to play audio and video content on our website.

- first party cookies to recognise whether you have accepted the use of cookies on our website.
- first party persistent cookies to remember the language in which to display our website to you.

Legal basis for processing: we process information about you contained in or obtained from necessary cookies in our legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Legitimate interests: ensuring our site functions properly and providing you with online services you have requested.

How to opt out of necessary cookies

Most browsers allow you to block all cookies, including necessary cookies. Please note, however, that if you block all cookies, parts of our website and its functionality may not work or display properly.

You can delete existing cookies from your browser by clearing your browsing data and ensuring that the option to delete cookies is selected.

For more detailed information on how to accept and reject cookies, including guidance for specific browsers, please see the section below entitled How to accept or reject cookies

Statistics cookies

Statistics cookies track and gather data about what a user does on a website. These cookies are not necessary for our website or its functionality to work. We use the following statistics cookies on our website:

There are a variety of statistics cookies on our website. Some are third party cookies which are installed by the third party to track use of their products on our website (e.g. Kickstarter and YouTube). Other cookies we have installed ourselves to help us improve the customer experience. These are Google Analytics cookies. Google Analytics helps us understand how you engage and interact with our website, including how you came to our website, which pages you visited, for how long and what you clicked on, your location (based on your IP address) and at what point you left our website, or made a purchase.

All statistics cookies used on our website are listed in the cookie list which can be found on this page: <https://www.theoldpipingbag.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/cookie-list.pdf>

These cookies are a mix of session and persistent cookies. These cookies expire after the time listed in the cookie list.

The information we and any third party collect using statistics cookies is collected on an anonymised basis.

More information

Google Analytics cookies are classified as first party cookies as they are set by our website domain, although Google collects and processes information from our use of Google Analytics. To find out more about how Google handles information collected from Google Analytics, see Google Analytics' privacy policy, which is available here: <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245>

Legal basis for processing: we process information about you contained in or obtained from advertising cookies in our legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Legitimate interests: displaying advertisements to you about our products and services. For further information on how we use the information gathered from our use of advertising cookies, including automated decision making and profiling please see the section entitled Our use of automated decision making and profiling in our privacy policy, which is available here: <https://www.theoldpipingbag.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/privacy-policy-may-18.pdf>

Third party cookies

Third parties use cookies to analyse your use of our website and/or to display advertisements (including third party advertisements) to you and provide advertisement conversion tracking from Google AdWords and Facebook pixel. Third party cookies used in relation to our website include:

- Third party marketing cookies. Use cookies to display advertisements to you on other websites OR elsewhere across the internet e.g. Facebook, based on your interests and behaviour and to measure their effectiveness. You can find out how Facebook uses your information and how they use cookies by accessing their privacy policy at https://www.facebook.com/full_data_use_policy and their cookies policy at [insert URL of third party's cookies policy]. These cookies are: <https://www.facebook.com/policies/cookies/> These cookies expire after the specified time listed on the cookie list above.
- Google AdWords cookies to track whether you have come to us via an advertisement we have placed on a search engine results page or elsewhere across the internet, such as another website and to record information relating to how you came to us such as your location when you accessed our website, the time of day you visited and the device you were using and by AdWords tracking or conversion cookies. Google may use different cookies to track how you came to our website depending on what advertisement you clicked on and where. For more information about Google AdSense, click here: <https://support.google.com/adsense/answer/6242051?hl=en>
- Google remarketing cookies to display advertisements to you about our goods and services across the internet, including on other websites you visit. Google uses cookies to display advertisements to you about our products and services on other websites and locations across the internet based on the fact that you have visited our website. Google may also display other advertisements across the internet to you about third party services using the Google AdSense network, although this is beyond our control. For more information about Google remarketing, click here: <https://support.google.com/adwords/answer/2453998?hl=en>

AND/OR

Legal basis for processing: consent (Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Consent: you give your consent to the purposes for which we process your information using third party cookies by clicking I accept the purposes for which you use advertising cookies in our cookie tool on our cookie controller. For further information on how we use the information gathered from our use of third party cookies, including automated decision making and profiling please see the section entitled Our use of automated decision making and profiling in our privacy policy, which is available here: <https://www.theoldpipingbag.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/privacy-policy-may-18.pdf>

Facebook Pixel

We use Facebook Pixel on our website. Facebook Pixel is a tracking code which allows us to track and monitor the success of advertisements we use on Facebook and to improve the effectiveness of those advertisements by recording information such as the device you used to access our website and the actions you took on our website using cookies. We may also use Facebook Pixel to create retargeting advertisements and custom audiences for our advertisements on Facebook and on our website

Facebook aggregates data gathered from our use of Facebook Pixel on our website with data it gathers from other sources, in order to improve and target advertisements displayed on its website or via its services, to improve its systems and to provide measurement services to third parties which use Facebook's advertising services. You can find out more about how Facebook handles information they collect about you and other individuals by accessing their privacy policy, which is available here: <https://www.facebook.com/about/privacy>

How to opt in or out

See the section below entitled How to accept or reject cookies

Legal basis for processing: we process the information we gather from the use of web beacons in our legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Legitimate interest: analysing the effectiveness of our advertisements on Facebook. [For further information on how we use the information gathered from our use of Facebook Pixel including automated decision making and profiling please see the section entitled Our use of automated decision making and profiling in our privacy policy, which is available here:

How to accept or reject cookies

There are a number of different ways in which you can accept or reject some or all cookies and similar technologies. Some of the main methods of doing so are described below:

You are welcome to block the use of some or all of the cookies we use on our website. However, please be aware that doing so may impair our website and its functionality or may even render some or all of it unusable.

You should also be aware that clearing all cookies from your browser will also delete any cookies that are storing your preferences, for example, whether you have accepted cookies on a website or any cookies that are blocking other cookies.

You can find more detailed information about cookies and adjusting your browser settings by visiting www.allaboutcookies.org

Accepting or rejecting cookies

Cookie control tool

You can accept or reject statistical cookies by using our cookie management tool. Our cookie control tool gives you the option to accept or reject cookies when you first arrive on our website within a pop up.

Browser settings

You can accept or reject some or all cookies (for example, blocking all third party cookies) by adjusting your browser settings. If you do not know how to do this, the links below set out information about how to change your browser settings for some of the most commonly used web browsers:

- Google Chrome: <https://support.google.com/chrome/answer/95647?hl=en-GB>
- Mozilla Firefox: <https://support.mozilla.org/en-US/kb/delete-browsing-search-download-history-firefox?redirectlocale=en-US&redirectslug=Clear+Recent+History>
- Microsoft Internet Explorer: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/278835/how-to-delete-cookie-files-in-internet-explorer>
- Apple Safari: https://support.apple.com/kb/PH5042?locale=en_US

Some browsers, such as Chrome and Firefox, allow you to change your settings to browse in 'incognito' mode, limiting the amount of data placed on your machine and automatically deleting any persistent cookies placed on your device when you finish your browsing session. There are also many third party applications which you can add to your browser to block or manage cookies.

Existing cookies

To clear cookies that have previously been placed on your browser, you should select the option to clear your browsing history and ensure that the option to delete or clear cookies is included when you do so.

Google Ad settings

You can manage and opt out of personalisation of advertisements by Google by visiting Google's ad settings page here <https://adssettings.google.com/> and by:

- unticking the button entitled 'Also use Google Account activity and information to personalize ads on these websites and apps and store that data in your Google Account'; and
- switching the 'Ads Personalisation' setting off (i.e. by ensuring the switch at the top of the page is set to the left/grey and not the right/blue).

Alternatively, you can install a free browser plugin here:

<https://support.google.com/ads/answer/7395996>

Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on

You can opt out of Google Analytics tracking by installing the browser add-on which is available here: <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

Facebook Pixel

Disconnect for Facebook

You can install a browser add-on tool called 'Disconnect Facebook pixel and FB tracking'. This will stop Facebook tracking you on third party websites. You can install the tool here:

- For Chrome: <https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/disconnect-facebook-pixel/nknndeagapifodhlebfbgbonbfmInfm?hl=en>
- For Firefox: <https://addons.mozilla.org/en-GB/firefox/addon/facebook-disconnect/>

European Interactive Digital Advertising Alliance Tool

You can opt out of Facebook and other companies that participate in the Digital Advertising Alliance in Europe from showing you interest based ads by visiting <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>, selecting your country, clicking 'Your Ad Choices', then locating Facebook (and any other companies you want to block) and selecting the 'Off' option.
